Welcome to Delaware County's Brandywine Country!

As the Chairman of Delaware County Council, I am proud to invite residents to enjoy the many cultural, historical and recreational opportunities that Delaware County has to offer.

For people who crave a more exotic experience, they can let their forks do the traveling this spring. Delaware County is home to a vibrant restaurant community that features all kinds of international cuisine: French, Chinese, Italian, Thai, Korean, Japanese, Irish and, of course, all-American.

Delaware County Council is pleased to partner with The Brandywine Conference and Visitors Bureau to ensure that our residents know about all of these great attractions that are easy on the pocketbook.

The best news is — many of these attractions are free.

With the economy on everyone's mind this year, it's important for people to know there are countless free and low-cost activities right in our own backyard.

This issue of Brandywine Country highlights historical sites in our county, plus features one of our most popular family attractions, Linvilla Orchards.

You don't need to leave county borders to explore American history because there are fascinating sites from Chester to Chadds Ford. In fact, my hometown of Chester is the oldest city in Pennsylvania, dating to 1644.

Fun does grow on trees...

acres of entertainment

The Delaware County farms grow much more than apples and pumpkins. Smiles, memories and adventures for all ages are regularly found in its fields.

With the coming of warmer weather, many of us are looking for fun, family-friendly ways to spend our sunlit afternoons. Whether you are looking for an entertaining outdoor play space for the kids, a chance to get out and experience nature, or even just a spot to pick up some just-picked fruit and vegetables, there's no better spot in Brandywine Country than Linvilla Orchards.

For almost 100 years, the Linvill family has owned and operated this 300-acre farm, one of the last working farms in the Delaware Valley. However, Linvilla Orchards is more than just a farm. It's part education, part entertainment and part enormous amounts of edible goodies!

Possibly the biggest Linvilla attraction is the enormous one-acre playground which features a giant, custom-built play structure and several freestanding wooden play structures to climb on. The central structure, built in 2004, remembers Linvilla's historical octagonal barn that was destroyed by a fire in 2002 and has a little bit of everything — slides, climbing walls, suspension bridges, ladders and rings. The other sets in the playground are items taken directly from a child's imagination and built out of wood. Whether your little one dreams of pirate ships or monster trucks, trains or airplanes . . . they're here and ready to be climbed on, slid down and run through. There's even a miniature train to ride on! Last but not least, one of the most popular places on the playground is the wire fence maze — a challenging but beginner start to some of the more difficult corn mazes out there. Just be sure not to enter unless you have 15 minutes to spare! Amazingly, all this fun can be had for just a $1 donation upon entry, which makes it one of the best deals in town.

Next to the playground, the other most popular attractions are the animals . . . and not just your typical farm animals either! Sure, guests can see the traditional critters found around a barnyard, such as sheep, goats, rabbits, horses, geese and more types of chickens than you can imagine, but there are also white-tailed deer, emus, peacocks, pheasants and quail. Guests are able to feed and pet the animals and leave free of germs, thanks to numerous convenient hand-cleaning stations.

Every year, thousands of Delaware County students and families learn about the agricultural process from beginning to end by visiting these animals and touring different aspects of the farm. In the spring and summer, Linvilla offers three different types of group hayrides — perfect for large family gatherings, outings for Scout troops or class field trips. One hayride focuses on the spring planting season and the agricultural history of the Lenni Lenape Indians and farming equipment used today. Another hayride includes time to pick your own fruit in the orchard, and another simply tours the different fields to see how different crops are grown. Guests may also choose just to pick their own fruit — without the accompanying hayride — anytime from strawberry picking in late May through fall apples in late October. In between, aspiring farmers can pick raspberries, blueberries, peaches, apricots, plums, blackberries, grapes, nectarines and pears.

Linvilla also hosts many special events, including seasonal favorites such as Bunnyland in the spring, Pumpkinland in the fall and numerous weekend festivals. In the weeks leading up to Easter (this year, that's March 28th through April 11th), guests can hop on a hayride through the woods to visit the Easter Bunny's house and share some treats with the furry host himself. It seems like almost every weekend in the spring and summer of 2009 is a festival weekend at Linvilla, beginning with a Plant and Flower Festival on May 2nd, and followed by an Antique Car Show and Flea Market on May 17th, Strawberry Festival on June 6th, Raspberry Festival on June 20th, Blueberry Festival on July 11th, Sweet Corn and Blackberry Festival on July 25th, Peach Festival on August 8th, and Tomato and Pear Festival on August 22nd.

On March 28th, Linvilla hosts its Expert Fishing Derby, where participants can try their best to snag a huge Rainbow Trout in a fully stocked pond. No fishing license is required and there are lots of prizes, rod rentals available, bait for sale and treats to eat. If you can't make it to Derby Day, fishing is available through November, conditions permitting. You can even check the fishing update on Linvilla's Web site at www.linvilla.com to find out what types of fish are currently stocked in the pond and how they are biting. Guests at the pond can catch and release as long as the fish are okay, and each fisherman can take one fish home with them, with more fish allowed for an additional charge. You can even win a prize if you're lucky enough to catch a tagged fish.

If you're looking for a watering hole not to fish in, but to swim in, Linvilla has those, too, with two swim clubs local residents are able to join to beat those dog days of summer. Swim club members enjoy two pools — Knowlton Swim Club and Hidden Hollow Swim Club — for one membership fee and have full access to both facilities for the entire season.

Of course, no visit to Linvilla — regardless of the time of year — is complete without a stop in the country farm market. Here, guests can find an amazing array of edible delights as well as landscaping and home décor items. All of the fruits and vegetables are freshly picked from Linvilla's fields and include strawberries, peaches, apples, nectarines, pears, apricots, grapes, corn, squash, tomatoes, eggplants, peppers and pumpkins. There are also more than 40 types of locally famous pies in the bakery, just-baked cookies, creamy, hand-dipped ice cream, apple cider donuts, preserves and jellies, honey, milk, eggs, cheese . . . just about anything you would need to prepare a locally grown, homemade, mouth-watering feast. ★

For more information on any of Linvilla's attractions or events, visit their Web site at www.linvilla.com or call 610-876-7116.

Could there possibly be a better summertime dessert than one featuring just-ripe, freshly picked produce? Pick your own peaches at Linvilla and then whip up this yummy peach crisp for an extra-special treat. More recipes, featuring other fruits, are available at www.linvilla.com under the "Pick Your Own" tab.

LINVILLA ORCHARDS' PEACH CRISP

6–7 peaches, peeled and sliced juice of one lemon
1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
3/4 cup rolled oats
1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
1/3 cup margarine

Put peaches in a shallow 2-quart baking dish and sprinkle with lemon juice. Mix flour, oats and brown sugar. Cut in margarine with pastry blender. Press over the peaches and bake at 325 degrees for 30 minutes or until peaches are tender. Serve warm with whipped cream or ice cream.

A trip abroad is no longer required to experience authentic global cuisine since our Delaware County restaurants have put exotic dining on the map.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVORS CLOSE TO HOME

If variety is the spice of life, then our condiment rack in Brandywine Country is packed full. We are fortunate to have the world at our fingertips — well, the tastes of the world anyway. Whether you're craving the hot, spicy flavors of Asia, or the romantic candlelit atmosphere of an Italian terrace, or even the salty, gritty rim of an ice-cold margarita glass, you don't have to travel far to experience authentic, exotic cuisine in our sleek and stylish restaurants.

We've highlighted just a few of our great dining options below, categorized by their country or region of origin. By the time you make it through the entire list, you'll feel like you've traveled the world . . . and yet have never left your own backyard.

THE FAR EAST

For traditional Chinese fare, there's Da Shin Restaurant in Media and Margaret Kuo's four eateries — two in Media (State Street and Granite Run Mall) and others in Wayne and Malvern. Da Shin's casual atmosphere makes it a favorite for families on the go or as a quick stop for an exotic take-out dinner.

Margaret Kuo's collection of restaurants has racked up a number of culinary awards including multiple Best of the Main Line awards and Awards of Excellence from Zagat Survey. In addition to Mandarin and Schezuan cooking, Mrs. Kuo's menus now include Japanese dishes such as Dobinmushi (a traditional Japanese mushroom soup) and Uni Tempura (sea urchin dipped in batter and fried).

Another Asian option is Azie, also on State Street in Media, a restaurant that — as its tag line says — is “refreshingly global.” Executive Chef Takao Iinuma (a competitor on 40 episodes of Iron Chef Japan and a winner of 75% of his matches) brings his impressive international training to a fun, hip eatery and meeting spot. Azie is quickly becoming a place to be seen . . . especially when you can enjoy your Azie owners Win and Sutida Somboonsong also own Teikoku on West Chester Pike in Newtown Square which focuses on Japanese and Thai cuisine served in the delicate beauty of an Asian-inspired setting. Dishes here, such as Tom ka Gai (coconut milk, chicken and mushroom soup) and Thai seafood paella (shrimp, scallops, squid, mussels, salmon, saffron and rice in a red curry sauce) are sure to please.

Finally, there's Yangming, on Conestoga Road in Bryn Mawr. Yangming has numerous awards listed on its resume, including being named as one of "10 Great Chinese Restaurants" by USA Today and one of "America's Top Tables" by Gourmet Magazine.

IRISH DINING

If you're looking to spend an evening in a lively Irish pub, give Sligo's on State Street in Media a try. All the furnishings in this handsome restaurant were brought over from the old country, including the impressive bar. Sligo's casual atmosphere and convenient location make it a perfect stop for a weekend family lunch or a Friday evening nightcap with good friends around a cozy table . . . and what could be more Irish than that?

An Irish meal just isn't complete without a glass of Irish ale, and several are on tap at Maggie O'Neill's in Drexel Hill, including Guinness, Harp and Smithwicks, in addition to many well-known American brands. The décor of Maggie O'Neill's is also distinctively Irish — so much so that as you settle in to enjoy your plate of a traditional Irish breakfast (Irish rashers, Irish sausage, eggs, Irish baked beans and home fries) or Shepherd's Pie (seasoned ground beef simmered in gravy with vegetables, capped with mashed potatoes and baked), you might just start speaking with a wee little accent.

Believing that there is nothing in the world quite like an Irish Pub, Kildare's proprietor Dave Magrogran is bringing the Irish dining experience to Brandywine Country — one pub at a time. With locations in West Chester, King of Prussia, and Philadelphia, each pub is designed to re-create the entire Irish dining experience. Traditional Irish dishes, such as chicken boxty (a potato pancake rolled and stuffed with marinated and grilled chicken, Wexford cheddar, lettuce, tomato and onion), and bangars and mash (Donnelly sausages over Champ potatoes with candied onions and demi glace) will transport you on a temporary trip to the Emerald Isle.

ITALIAN CUISINE

Fortunately, for those of us in Brandywine Country, it's not necessary to travel all the way to Italy for an authentic, homemade Italian meal. Italophiles get to choose from several excellent options, including Fellini's Café Trattoria, which serves first-class Italian cuisine in a cozy cafe on State Street in Media. (Trattoria in Italian is used to describe a restaurant that is usually family-run, where the food and service is casual, warm and personal — a perfect description of Fellini's!) Fellini's also is a single guy's dream with a romantic atmosphere and personal, tableside flower delivery available through Kenny's Flower Shop. Combine those two ingredients with live opera night on Mondays and she'll be bragging about your date for weeks!

At Trattoria Giuseppe in Edgemont, diners feel as if they are dining on a Sicilian piazza on a splendid Italian evening. With intimate dining indoors and out, and an extensive list of masterful entrees (including 20 types of pizza and 25 types of pasta dishes alone!) Trattoria Giuseppe is an Italian masterpiece.

Speaking of masterpieces, D'Ignazio's Towne House on Veteran's Square in Media is a Delaware County dining landmark, literally jam-packed with local mementos and memorabilia. The Towne House's menu consists of a wide variety of dishes, but Mondays are pasta night featuring special pricing on all of its Italian specialties.

Another great choice is Pescatore's Italian Restaurant on Route 202 (Wilmington Pike) in Glen Mills. (Yes, we know these are a lot of options, but really, can you ever have enough Italian?) Pescatore's is a family-friendly, casual restaurant with lots of tasty Italian dishes such as Fusilli Alla Boscaiola (pasta in a light cream marinara sauce with shiitake mushrooms, peas and prosciutto) and Fettucine Alfredo on the menu.

MEXICAN MEALS

If it's something hot and spicy you're looking for (and we mean both food and atmosphere) look no further than Coyote Crossing in Conshohocken. With exquisite outdoor seating, classic Mexican dishes and pitchers of award-winning margaritas, this restaurant can't be beat for a Latin-themed night on the town. Be sure to try the guacamole (a special family recipe) and the Chile Abuelita (Poblano chile stuffed braised pork, hazelnuts and raisins and baked in a homemade "abuelita" — or "granny" — sauce.)

BRITISH TEA TIME AND MORE

Of course, in Britain tea time is just as important as any main meal and we have two British tea rooms to choose from — specialTeas Tea Room in Chadds Ford and Tea and Cakes on South Jackson Street in Media. Both restaurants offer a chance to treat yourself to the fine English tradition of taking time to enjoy fine company, sweet treats and a little spot o' tea.

Tea time is also available Monday through Saturday from 2pm to 4pm at the Montrose Mansion at the Villanova Conference Center. This delightful afternoon includes a pot of tea, scones, Devonshire cream, raspberry preserves, finger sandwiches and a selection of petite desserts.

Above, clockwise: Media offers Asian fare at Azie and Italian cuisine at D'Ignazio's Towne House. Tea is served at specialTeas Tea Room in Chadds Ford.

Azie in Media

Whether you choose to say “Bon appétit!” or “Buon appetito” or even “Buen provecho,” make sure you remember to say “let’s try something new tonight.”

At The Whip in West Marlborough, diners enjoy a meal in an authentic English pub atmosphere complete with traditional English meals and rare beers imported directly from the United Kingdom. Appetizers here include Bubble and Squeak (skillet browned potato cake filled with tender sauté of leeks and cabbage) and Scotch Egg (hard-cooked egg wrapped in seasoned ground pork, lightly breaded and fried).

FRENCH FARE

At La Belle Epoque Café, owner and executive chef Loic Barnieu brings a mastery of French cuisine to Media that he learned from observing his grandfathers while he was growing up in the small French village of Burgandy. The menu includes such tempting dishes as Confit de Canard (a French dish made with leg of duck) and Coquille Saint Jacques (scallops). (To expand your multi-cultural dining experience even further, be sure to come back and visit the trendy and stylish Picasso Restaurant and Bar — also owned by Barnieu — which serves a Spanish/Italian fusion menu and boasts a spectacular wine and beer list.)

Also on State Street are La Na Thai French Cuisine and Nooddi (also called Nadia Thai Cuisine). La Na serves intriguing entrees such as Evil Jungle Princes (boldly spiced chicken sautéed with vegetable medley, exotic spices and herbs) and Love and Passion (roasted Cornish hen marinated in traditional seasonings filled with Thai yellow rice and served with honey orange sauce, flavored with Grand Marnier). More Thai dishes (and Vietnamese and Japanese) are to be had down the street at Nooddi where diners can enjoy Som Tam (Thai Salad), Bangkok eggplant and Vietnamese Pho Soup. While both of these are delicious options, we seemed to have diverted from our French theme, mon ami.

For many discriminating diners, it doesn’t get much more French than famed chef Georges Perrier of Le Bec Fin in Center City, Philadelphia. Fortunately, Philadelphia’s countryside is also home to one of his restaurants, simply called georges’ in Wayne. georges’ is Chef Perrier’s answer to casual stylishness on Philadelphia’s Main Line. It presents global cuisine with varied selections along with unique presentations. The restaurant’s warm, inviting atmosphere is perfect for a quick bite, an intimate meal or a fun meeting place to gather with family and friends.

SO THERE IT IS . . . A VIRTUAL TRIP around the culinary globe. With so many stamps in your dining passport, you will be well on your way to being a connoisseur of international dining. Whether you choose to say “Bon appétit!” or “Buon appetito” or even “Buen provecho,” make sure you remember to say “let’s try something new tonight” every once and while and travel to one of Delaware County’s fabulous restaurants. It will be worth the trip! ★

Hadrosaurus Foulkii: The Dinosaur That Changed the World Through 4/19
In 1868, only one museum in the world had a complete dinosaur skeleton on display — The Academy of Natural Sciences. Now through April 19, the Academy once again displays this historic skeleton, reinterpreted for the 21st century.

Geckos – Tails to Toepads 5/30-9/7
Bulging eyes, night vision, “sticky” toepads, squawking voices, neon-colored skin and disposable body parts — sounds like a horror movie, but this describes a gecko. Meet live geckos of all sizes, shapes and colors in lush naturalistic habitats. Hands-on activities make it a unique experience for the whole family.

SIGHTSEEING

Experience the history, the beauty and the fun of the Brandywine. Our historic region is one with a variety of activities to welcome the warmer weather of spring and summer. Our gardens and arboretums burst into color as their springtime spectacle gets under way, with many special events scheduled at such locations as Longwood Gardens or Tyler Arboretum. As Memorial Day rolls around, so do our local musicians, as outdoor concerts pop up weekly throughout the region. And, of course, seasonal pastimes such as canoeing, hiking, biking and even blueberry picking have a home here, too. The opportunities for memorable experiences are endless in Delaware County's Brandywine Country.

Members who have a gold star listing (★) are also advertising contributors. We appreciate their patronage.

Unique Garden Experiences

Join us this Spring and Summer as each month brings new wildflower discoveries.

In April, we showcase our world-renowned Trilliums.

Then in May, our woodland gardens are painted in pink, blue, and white by the flowering dogwoods and wood phloxes.

And a Summer evening tour is sure to relax and rejuvenate you as you enjoy the sights and fragrances of lilies and azaleas from under a canopy of tulip poplars. Don't miss the ever-changing glory of our gardens! To reserve your tour and learn more about us, visit www.mtcubacenter.org.
